

Myanmar Youth Association member Professor Daw Win Win Kyi speaks on the donation of books. — MNA

Books donated to various ministries

YANGON, 15 July — Wellwishers donated various topics of books to be used in education promotion programme of the State to the Ministry of Education, the Ministry of Culture, the Ministry of Science & Technology, the Ministry of Health and the Ministry of Transport, at the Tatmadaw Guest House on Inya Road this morning.

On behalf of the wellwishers, Vice-Chief of Military Intelligence Maj-Gen Kyaw Win handed over donations. Col Hla Min of the Ministry of Defence introduced representatives of respective ministries to visiting member of Myanmar Youth Association Professor Daw Win Win Kyi.

Prof Daw Win Win Kyi explained the purpose of the donations and cooperation of NGOs from the US in the Myanmar education sector. On behalf of Chairman of Myanmar Education Committee Prime Minister General

Khin Nyunt, Maj-Gen Kyaw Win of the Ministry of Defence handed over the books to the deputy ministers of ministries concerned. Next, the representatives of respective ministries and guests viewed the books.

The books were donated by the Myanmar Youth Association formed with Myanmar citizen teachers, students, youths and parents in the US and American friends and families for enabling students in Myanmar to enjoy development of the education sector. The association had donated books for two times in March and December 2002, for two times in May and September 2003 and for two times in May 2004 and this time. More books will arrive here soon for next donations. Also present were visiting scholars of Myanmar Youth Association; Teachers Across Borders (USA); People to People Group; and Myanmar Women (New York) of USA. — MNA

Myanmar Youth Association member Professor Daw Win Win Kyi speaks on the donation of books. — MNA

Books donated to various ministries

YANGON, 15 July — Wellwishers donated various topics of books to be used in education promotion programme of the State to the Ministry of Education, the Ministry of Culture, the Ministry of Science & Technology, the Ministry of Health and the Ministry of Transport, at the Tatmadaw Guest House on Inya Road this morning.

On behalf of the wellwishers, Vice-Chief of Military Intelligence Maj-Gen Kyaw Win handed over donations. Col Hla Min of the Ministry of Defence introduced representatives of respective ministries to visiting member of Myanmar Youth Association Professor Daw Win Win Kyi.

Prof Daw Win Win Kyi explained the purpose of the donations and cooperation of NGOs from the US in the Myanmar education sector. On behalf of Chairman of Myanmar Education Committee Prime Minister General

Khin Nyunt, Maj-Gen Kyaw Win of the Ministry of Defence handed over the books to the deputy ministers of ministries concerned. Next, the representatives of respective ministries and guests viewed the books.

The books were donated by the Myanmar Youth Association formed with Myanmar citizen teachers, students, youths and parents in the US and American friends and families for enabling students in Myanmar to enjoy development of the education sector. The association had donated books for two times in March and December 2002, for two times in May and September 2003 and for two times in May 2004 and this time. More books will arrive here soon for next donations. Also present were visiting scholars of Myanmar Youth Association; Teachers Across Borders (USA); People to People Group; and Myanmar Women (New York) of USA. — MNA