

Copyright Ownership at UC

Copyright retained by originator/author:          Scholarly/aesthetic works created by UC faculty. Course materials, including course syllabus created by UC faculty.<sup>1</sup> Personal works prepared outside scope of employment. Student works.	Copyright normally retained by University (work made for hire)          Institutional works created by UC employees within scope of employment. UC sponsored works. UC commissioned works. Works acquired by assignment or will.
Copyright normally governed by written agreements:          Course materials created with use of Exceptional University Resources.<sup>2</sup> Personal works outside scope of job created with use of University facilities. UC sponsored works. UC commissioned works. Contracted facilities works. Special University Projects.	Nonexclusive license retained by University to use works for education and research. UC sponsored works not owned by University. UC commissioned works not owned by University. Course syllabi created by UC faculty.
Copyright shared jointly by originator and University:          Course materials created with the use of Exceptional University Resources that are not governed by a written agreement.
Notes:  <sup>1</sup>Nonexclusive license to use syllabi retained by the University.  <sup>2</sup>Originator and University jointly own course material in absence of agreement.

Related Policies:

- 2002 Proposed Policy on Copyright Ownership of Course Materials
- 1992 Policy on Copyright Ownership