- B. Pick-up lines at a regular session: A performer may be requested to record unlimited pick-up lines from previous episodes for no additional compensation if such recording of pick-up lines takes no more than one hour at a session at which the performer is engaged to perform principal recording.

IV. Recording of lead-ins, lead-outs, bumpers and wraparounds

Performers who are paid for or guaranteed at least 50% of the episodes ordered in a particular production period for a particular series may be required to record, without additional compensation, lead-ins, lead-outs, bumpers and/or wraparounds which may be used with any episode of the series produced within any production period during which the performer satisfies the foregoing test. Such lead-ins, lead-outs, bumpers and/or wraparounds must be done in the performer's "character" voice (which includes performer's own voice, when performer's natural voice is the "character" voice) and must be recorded during the same session as the recording for an episode or episodes.

V. Auditions

A performer called for a fourth audition for the same role shall be paid a minimum fee of $50.00 for the first two (2) hours. For all time in excess of two hours, the performers shall be paid as follows for each one-half hour unit:
